hese beautiful lines are from a longer poem called "Torrismund." Beddoes was in England, 1802, and died in Switzerland, 1809. He was a brilliant selentist and great advances in physiology. In literature he was no less distinguished, his senine producing a play of marked merit when he was only nineteen years old.

OW many times do I love thee, dear? Tell me how many thoughts there be In the atmosphere 'Of a new-fallen year, Whose white and sable hours appear The latest flake of elernity:

So many times do I love thee, dear. How many times do I love again? Tell me how many beads there are In a silver chain Of evening rain, Unraveled from the tumbling main,

And threading the eye of a yellow star:

So many times do I love again.

The Charlottesville Progress says, in regard to the dramatic recitals which Miss Kate Elsmere Puller, of this city, has been giving at the Jefferson Park Chautaline Charlet and the recitals by Miss Puller stamped that lady as an artist of the very best known talent. Miss Puller is not only charming in personality, but is fully competent to present the best in American literature in a fascinating manner to the people of this vicinity. Her rendition of Several choice sclections captured the large audience.

Patrick prepare Brusch's case to submit to the court when the matter comes up? Men interested in the case were away from the city jast night and could not be reached.

A convicted man is absolutely entitled to a stay pending appeal. Patrick is the first lawyer convicted of murder in this State who has saved a fellow murderer from execution.

This matter brings up an interesting question. The death of President McKingley's murderer, whose attorneys would not appeal might have been delayed until now had Cologic found in prison a man of the calibre of Patrick.

DOWIE SAYS ZION IS WORTH THIRTY MILLION

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

¡WAUKEGAN, ILIL., Aug. 22.—Persons who do not think that business should be combined with religion will not enter into the kingdom of heaven, declared John Alexander Dowle yesterday in what he termed a "business fermon" in Shilon Tabernacle, Zion City.

As high priest of Zion, he said the Bible gave him a right to take ten per cent, of his followers' carnings, but that he individually was only taking five per cent.

"Zion is now worth about $30,000,000," said Dowle, "and from now on the underestimate of the profits will be twenty-five per cent. "It started to rain hard," said Dowles. "That rain came because it rain $1,000,000 if I wanted to, just as easily as a saking for that ran, couldn't 17 To this his followers responded "Yes."

Compasses on Southern Pacific Company's Vessel Affected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 22.—Captain
H. L. Higgins, of the Southern Pacific Company's steamship El Sud, reports a remarkable experience during a severe electric sform encountered on his last passage from New York to Galveston. The weather during the forenoon watch of August 13 had been rainy, with occasional thunder storms. At a quarter after eleven elock that forenoon, in latitude 31 degrees 45 minutes west, one hundred miles off Savannah, the vessel was struck by lightning amidships, doing no damage as far as visible.

Investigation proved, however, that the story of an adventure that was captured.

HIT BY BULLETS, WHALE PLAYS DEAD

Remains Quiet Long Enough for Amateur Whaler to Board Him, Then Down He Goes.

A Hartford, Connecticut, special of the New York Heraid says: A party of men from this city, who have been spending a few weeks at Grswolds on the Sound shore after large fish, returned here today with the hide or a whale and the story of an adventure that befel them yesterday, when the whale was captured.

Will L. Willard, of No. 48 Hopkins Street, is the hero, having stood upon a live whale's back, and his story is credited because the Rev. Karl Reliand, of the Episcopal Church at Wethersfield, one of Hartford's suburbs, says he saw him do it and helped to rescue Mr. Willard.

Saturday morning, as the fishermen, who have been living in tents on the shore, across for breakfust shortly after daylight, a small whale spouted about a mile off shore. Mr. Willard, Mr. Reliand and the three Standish brothers, also of Wethersfield, put out in a kowbost, armed with harpoons and a heavy revolver.
